

Cornus florida 'Appalachian Spring' Flowering Dogwood

- 20 to 25 feet tall and wide
- Prefers part shade with cool, moist, acidic soil
- A prolific bloomer with showy white bracts in April-May
- 'Appalachian Spring' is resistant to Dogwood Anthracnose and it's leaves are larger than those of the species
- Red berries in fall, red fall foliage

