

Cornus florida

Flowering Dogwood

- 12 to 20 feet tall
- Spread 8 to 15 feet
- Part shade to shade
- Moist, slightly acidic; sun/part shade
- White flowers in April
- Very showy, crimson berries in small clusters at branch tips in Fall
- Leaves turn deep burgundy, sometimes flushed with red in Fall
- Ornamental warm, gray, alligator-hide bark

Native Plants

Native to PA