

Cornus racemosa

Gray Dogwood

- 3 to 15 feet tall
- Spreads 10 to 15 feet suckering shrub
- Sun/part sun
- Average, medium, well-drained soil.
Tolerates drought.
- White flowers in June
- Wonderful contrasting white berries on red stems in fall
- Wild, unrefined character, good for naturalizing/restoration of stream banks

