

Corylus americana

American Filbert

- 8 to 12 feet tall
- Spreads 8 to 13 feet, thicket forming shrub
- Full sun to light shade
- Dry to moist well drained soil
- Edible nut, matures in September – October. Squirrels love the nuts!
- Fall color is yellow-green to orange-red

Native to PA