

Halesia carolina

Carolina Silverbell

- 30 to 40 feet high
- Spreads 20 to 35 feet
- Sun to part shade
- Prefers rich, moist, well drained, acidic soil
- White bell shaped flowers in clusters along the stems in Spring
- Patterned bark and four-winged brown fruit provide winter interest

