

Quercus phellos

Willow Oak

- 40 to 60 feet. In ideal situations can grow taller.
- Spreads 25 to 50 feet
- Sun, part sun
- Prefers moist, well-drained soil but can be adaptable to other soils.
- Fall color is usually yellow-orange fading to a yellow brown.
- Long, narrow leaves resembling foliage of willows
- Good street tree.

Host plant for White-M Hairstreak

