

Robinia hispida Bristly locust

- 2 to 9 feet tall
- Spreads 5 to 15 feet
- Full sun
- Dry, infertile, rocky or sandy. Adaptable to any soil except for permanently wet
- Spreads by root suckers. Good for stabilizing banks. Bristly stems
- Clusters of pinkish flowers in early summer

