

Ulmus americana

American Elm

- 60 to 80 feet
- Sun to part sun
- Moist to moderately dry
- Adaptable to many climates and soils
- Flowers before leaves emerge in spring. Not showy.
- Yellow fall foliage
- Vase shaped, shade tree

Larvae host for Painted Lady, Mourning Cloak
Eastern Comma & Question Mark butterfly

Our plants are from disease resistant lineage but are not guaranteed against Dutch elm disease.

