

Viburnum prunifolium

Blackhaw Viburnum

- 12 to 15 feet tall
- Spreads 6 to 12 feet, rounded form
- Sun to light shade
- Dry to moist soil
- White flowers in Spring
- Bluish pink berries ripen to blue-black in Fall
- Fall foliage color is burgundy red
- The fruit can be made into preserves.

Native to PA