

Aralia racemosa

American Spikenard

- 2 to 5 feet
- Shade – part shade
- Rich, moist soil
- Clusters of tiny white flowers, June-July
- Showy purple-red berries in fall
- Spikenard lacks spines
- Good alternative to the invasive Japanese Knotweed