

Dicentra exima

Wild Bleeding Heart

- 1 to 1.5 feet tall
- Spreads 1 to 1.5 feet
- Sun to shade
- Average to moist soil
- A long blooming perennial with pendulous, pink, heart shaped flowers in late spring and sporadically into fall
- Dissected, fern like foliage

Native to PA Threatened, rare or endangered