

Gentiana clausa

Bottle Gentian

- 1 to 2 feet tall
- Sun to part shade
- Easy to grow in an average to moist shady site. Washed out foliage is a sign of too much sun.
- Vivid violet-blue flowers August-October,
- Flowers never fully open, a narrow space at top allows bees to work their way inside. When pollinated, flower tips turn from white to purple.

