

Lillium superbum Turk's Cap Lily

- 4 to 7 feet tall
- Spread 6 to 12 inches
- Full sun to part shade
- Average, medium to wet, well-drained soil
- The largest and most spectacular of the native Lilies; up to 40 flowers have been recorded on a single plant.
- Blooms Red/Orange/Yellow July Through September
- Occurs naturally in Wet meadows, swamps, and woods.

Native to PA