

Asclepias viridiflora
Green Comet Milkweed

- 1-2' high x 1' spread
- Full sun to part shade
- Dry to average; well draining soil
- Green flowers in summer
- Like other Asclepias species, this species is a host plant for Monarch butterflies and a nectar source for bees and other butterflies

Native to PA