

Phegopteris hexagonoptera
Broad Beech Fern

Sorry, no photo at this time.

- Shade to part shade
- Best grown in acidic, well drained moist soil
- 12-26 inches height. 3 ft. width
- Arching, triangular shaped, medium green fronds
- Spreads via running rhizomes
- Very uncommon in the trade; a special and dainty addition to a woodland garden