

Spiraea virginiana
Virginia Meadowsweet

- 3-10' tall x 5-8' wide
- Full sun to light shade
- Moist to wet soil; good choice for rain garden or stream bank
- Large heads of white flowers in late spring through mid-summer
- This species is extirpated from PA and threatened across its entire range
- Can form colonies through suckering

Native to PA Threatened, rare or endangered

