

Crataegus phaenopyrum Washington Hawthorne

- 25 to 30 feet x 20 to 25 foot spread
- Sun
- Moist soil
- Abundant small creamy white flowers in spring followed by small, round, red fruits that persist into winter
- Orange and scarlet to purplish fall foliage
- Broadly oval to rounded tree with thorns

