April - May

Acer saccharum

Sugar Maple

- 60 to 80 feet tall on average
- 25 to 50 feet spread
- Full sun to full shade
- Graceful, fast growing shade tree
- Average to moist, well-drained soil
- Drought, clay, and poor soil tolerant
- Beautiful red and orange fall colors
- Source of sap for maple syrup!
- Larval host for the imperial moth
- Dominant, keystone tree species in Pennsylvania forests