Aug – Oct

Andropogon gerardii 'Holy Smoke'

'Holy Smoke' Big Bluestem

SUN

PART SUN/PART SHADE

- 60 to 72 inches tall
- 36 to 48 inches spread
- Full sun to light shade
- Dry to moist, fertile, well-drained soil
- Tolerates drought
- "Turkey-foot" blooms in late summer that persist into fall or even winter
- 'Holy Smoke' is noted for its exceptional foliage color which changes from green to reddish to smoky, purple-black in fall
- Larval host for the Common Wood Nymph and several skippers

Native to PA