

Gaultheria procumbens Eastern Teaberry, Wintergreen

- 3 to 6 inches tall
- Spreads 6 to 12 inches. Spreads rhizomatically, slow growing
- Part sun to full shade
- Moist to dry, acidic soil
- Bell-shaped, white flowers in summer
- Evergreen, reddish fall color. Edible berries; leaves are the source of wintergreen flavor

PART SUN/PART SHADE

SHADE

Native to PA