April - May

Hexastylis arifolia
Little Brown Jug

- 3 to 6 inches tall
- 12 to 24 inches spread
- Part sun to full shade
- Average to moist, fertile, well-drained soils
- Brown, urn-like flowers found at the base of the plant; pollinated by ants and beetles
- Evergreen foliage; maroon color in winter
- Spreads slowly, plant en mass for an attractive, evergreen groundcover

EDGE of the Woods Native Plants