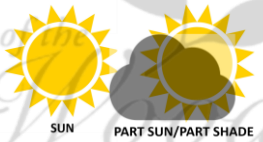
June - July



Hydrangea quercifolia
Oakleaf Hydrangea

- 3 to 8 feet tall
- 6 to 8 feet spread; can sucker
- Full sun to part shade
- Moist to moderately dry, slightly acidic to neutral, well-drained soils
- Large panicles of white flowers in early to mid-Summer; changing to pink and then brown
- Beautiful fall foliage
- Naturally occurs in the Southeast U.S.