May - June

Ilex glabra - FEMALE
Inkberry Holly

- 6 to 8 feet tall
- 5 to 10 feet spread
- Full sun to part shade
- Average to wet, acidic soils; salt tolerant
- Waxy, evergreen foliage
- Females produce black berries
- Plant male within 50 feet for pollination
- Inconspicuous white flowers in late spring
- Larval host Henry's elfin and Holly Azure butterfly
- Extirpated from the wild in PA