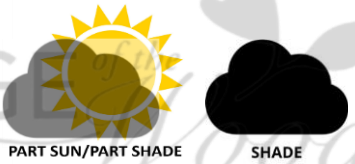
April - May



Phlox stolonifera

Creeping Phlox

- 6 to 10 inches tall
- 18 to 36 inches spread
- Part sun to full shade
- Average to moist, well-drained soil
- Tolerates drought and rocky soils
- Violet-blue or magenta-pink flowers in mid-to-late-spring
- Tight, ground-hugging foliage makes an ideal groundcover

EDGE of the Woods Native Plants