Sept. – Oct.

Solidago sphacelata
Heart-leaf Goldenrod

- 12 to 24 inches tall
- 18 to 24 inches spread
- Full sun to part shade
- Dry to moist, well-drained soils
- Tolerates drought, clay, poor soil, salt
- Arching wands of golden yellow flowers late summer into fall
- Larval host for several moths
- May spreads by short rhizomes but is nonaggressive
- Naturally occurs in the Cumberland Plateau and Blueridge Mountains of Appalachia