Thuja occidentalis
Eastern Arborvitae or Northern White Cedar

- 20 to 40 feet tall
- 5 to 20 feet spread
- Full sun to part shade
- Moist to wet, fertile soils; tolerates occasional dryness and clay soils
- Naturally occurs in wetlands and along water margins
- Beautiful, conical to pyramidal evergreen with soft, fragrant foliage
- Larval host for Promethea Silkmoth